The Library Letter has proudly been in publication since 1979. It is presented annually to promote library services and new acquisitions. Also it honors staff authors during National Library Week. Publications by staff authors are continuously being gathered from prestigious scientific-medical and non-medical journals and the Library Letter will continue to honor those publications. The content of this newsletter will be enhanced to include Baptist Health Staff who have presented lectures and/or posters at conferences.

The library team will be hosting an “Afternoon Tea” to honor all authors and conference presenters cited in this newsletter at Baptist Hospital in the Jaffee Medical Library at 3 - 4pm on April 5th. If you are able to attend, please RSVP library@baptisthealth.net or 786-662-8219.

We are excited to announce, our guest speaker at the event will be our own Human Resource member, Norma Jennings. Norma is the author of Daughter of the Caribbean. She will be sharing her experience with the publishing process and be available to sign copies of her book.

Additionally, the 2nd Annual BHSF Research Pre-Conference sponsored by the Center for Research & Grants will be hosting a 3-hour workshop -- “Publishing in Scientific Journals.” Participants will learn how to prepare scientific articles for publication in peer-reviewed journals. For conference details, call (786) 594-6701 or e-mail claudiamat@baptisthealth.net. Space is limited.

If your publication was missed, please email it to library@baptisthealth.net.

What’s New?

Patient, families and their visitors may use the libraries at South Miami & Baptist Hospital or the family resource centers at Doctors & West Kendall to access reliable patient education materials. Request for literature can also be made on behalf of the patient via forms on the library’s intranet site or sent to library@baptisthealth.net.

Journal clubs can help promote evidence based practice, improve the quality of patient care, encourage research, and foster an environment where participants can learn from each other. However, one of the major challenges that are inherent with journal clubs is setting up time to meet. The library can help overcome that obstacle by creating a “virtual” journal club. Within that “virtual” space members can read and post comments on articles at times that are convenient to them. The format is similar to posting to a social media site, blog or online school discussion board. For further details contact John Reynolds, electronic resource librarian, johnrey@baptisthealth.net.

The library has partnered with Wellness Advantage and Clinical Learning to be the central location for employees to check out Wellness DVDs and American Heart Association manuals. See new arrivals section, page 12, for more details.

We have opened a new library at Doctors Hospital; Staffed Monday – Friday, 8:30am to 5:00pm. After hour badge access available.

Library is now a part of the Center for Research & Grants. The Center for Research & Grants provides a variety of research resources, opportunities and services for healthcare practitioners affiliated with Baptist Health South Florida.
